

FAQ 2 RECEIPTING THE CORRECT DONOR

Sometimes our church receives a gift from a corporation in the budget envelope of a member. May we issue an official receipt for income tax purposes to the member?

A. The church may issue the receipt to the member only if the payment comes from the member's personal bank account. If the amount comes directly from a corporation, the receipt must be issued in the name of the corporation.