

FAQ 4 OVERCOMING RESTRICTIONS ON DESIGNATED GIFTS

How can a church avoid having donor restricted funds that cannot be redirected for other projects of the church?

A. The simplest way is for the church to publish the following statement on all solicitations for donations designated for specific projects:

Donations designated for approved project will be used for other church ministry projects once sufficient funds for the designated project have been received, or where the approved project cannot be carried out or completed.